Click on "Club Intranet"- it takes you to the login page....

Welcome to the club's online service for members. This intranet area is for the secure and exclusive use of club members only.

The advantages of the Intranet are that it now provides comprehensive and secure information, all in one place, that can be easily managed and kept up-to-date by the club. Furthermore, members can find the information that is relevant to their needs at any time of the day or night, and respond as they wish.

In the white bar above the Club banner at the very top of this page is the menu for your personal intranet administration use. It includes:

The Webmaster can only be in one place at a time. If the website is to remain active then it : member of the club. Some members will be at one event, some at another. If the site is to ca activities, then writing a story about the event has to be planned in advance of the event and write about it and make sure that photos are taken. Promoting future events on the site also forethought.

Several members have already stepped up and shown that they are not only willing but also articles. These include:

David Pine who writes about the speakers nearly every week

- · Phillip Reidy and Jim Dearsly who have willingly taken his place when he is away
- Bill McAulay, Mike Doig and David Knight about speech competitions
- Julie McLagan about youth affairs
- Angus Langbein about Inlet clean-ups and Gallipoli
- Adrienne Murray about adult playgrounds

In closing.....

- Please use the Club Intranet it is there for your convenience and to keep you informed
- If you need to give the webmistress information on projects that you are responsible for, please do so. We are all responsible for consistency in our efforts and succession planning
- Enjoy the Club Intranet. Update your details and your profile and engage with members old and new on this modern communications platform
