IN THE HEART OF THE VIBRANT CUBA QUARTER

Welcome to the 5th Awesome Arts Access Auction.

Arts Access Aotearoa believes everyone in New Zealand has the right to express themselves creatively, and be included as audience members and visitors to galleries and museums. Everyone also has the right to develop artistic skills, benefit economically from the arts and make a valuable contribution as artists.

However, some people in New Zealand aren't included in opportunities because of their disability or impairment. One in four (1.1 million) people in New Zealand has a disability or impairment that affects their daily lives (Census 2013).

There is a lack of understanding about the requirements of people with access needs. Arts Access Aotearoa is changing this. Your support tonight helps us make the arts more accessible and inclusive for all people in New Zealand.

Howard Fancy
Chair

Richard Bengel
Executive Director

Tonight there are more than 60 items that could be yours, including entertainment, art, health, accommodation and food.

We are grateful to Nigel Harper, General Manager, and staff of CQ Hotels Wellington – our essential partner in this event and champions of accessibility.

Thank you to every individual, artist, business and arts organisation for donating a wonderful range of auction items. Thanks to our sponsors and supporters, and to each person who has volunteered tonight and helped with ticket sales. Thank you to everyone who has attended and for bidding. Your support helps Arts Access Aotearoa make the arts accessible for everyone.

SILENT AUCTION SECTION 1

CLOSES AT 6.45PM

1. Red Abstract: Painted by a prisoner in the Drug Treatment Unit at Rimutaka Prison using a toothbrush, this striking work was part of an exhibition called From the Inside, an exhibition showcasing artwork by prisoners at Rimutaka.

2. Chamber Music New Zealand double pass: Experience the excitement and sheer brilliance of Chamber Music New Zealand's 2018 season, with two A reserve flexi-vouchers. These can be used for any concert in the 2018 Subscription Series.

3. Classic Nikau: Nikau Café by Kelda Hains is a gorgeous new cookbook with many of Nikau Café's classic dishes. Kelda's food is informed by her love of gardening and produce, with seasonal cooking at the heart of every dish. Each chapter is named for a dish served at Nikau.

LES MILLS

4. Get fit this summer: Focus on fitness with a three-month gym membership at Les Mills Extreme in Wellington. Plus a bag to carry your gear in. Worth $390

5. Family pass to Space Place: Discover the stories of our southern skies at the Carter Observatory's Space Place, a multimedia exhibition and digital full-dome planetarium. Donated by Museums Wellington.

6. Family pass to Capital E Live's Odd One Out: A delightful, magical musical, perfect for children aged 2 – 7 years. All of us want to feel we belong and are valued no matter who we are. The show is on during the 2018 April school holidays: 16 April to Friday 27 April.

7. Kearose from Pony Lane: Take home this gorgeous Kearose pure soy wax candle and diffuser set. All scents are made in New Zealand and the fragrances are divine. For more stylish and affordable homeware, stationery, jewellery and gorgeous designer purses, visit the online boutique at ponylane.co.nz

8. Robot Power: Dancing Robot: Michelle Irving works mainly with fabric, combining this with embroidery, paint and beads. "I enjoy the versatility of textiles and the amazing colour range. My great-grandmother, grandmother and mother all stitched. My mother taught me my first sewing skills."

9. The LitCrawl Collection: From Wellington's funkiest literary festival comes an exciting collection of seven books to relax with over summer or gift to your favourite person or people for Christmas.

10. Glorious Olive: Enjoy a treat at Olive in Cuba St. Sample its delicious fare and locally brewed beer and wine, and be dazzled by the best-kept secret in Wellington – the courtyard and its glorious olive tree. Olive offers breakfast, lunch and dinner, and everything in between.

11. Cutting edge: This Silky POCKETBOY, nicknamed "Little Giant" for its extraordinary cutting capacity, is a compact, lightweight folding saw with a 13 cm blade that packs a massive pruning punch but takes up very little room in your pocket. Donated by Ellmers Lawnmower Centre, Cuba St.

12. Pamper yourself: What a great treat for yourself or as a present: a manicure or pedicure courtesy of Classiquo Nail and Beauty, Cuba Street, Wellington.

13. Bright Fantail: a beautiful and bright tote bag from Te Papa, fully lined and with a full-colour fantail print. This stylish tote bag is perfect for the beach, supermarket or library.

14. Summer Dulux: time to spruce up the house or bach over the summer months. Here's a great offer from Dulux: 20 litres of Dulux Paint. Value: $400

15. Fat Kitty: A beautiful artwork from talented artist Adrian Faherty, an exhibited artist who created art at the former Alpha Art Studio. Alpha Art Studio was a finalist for the Arts Access CQ Hotels Wellington Community Partnership Award in 2016.

16. Layered colours: Tracey Tse is an artist from the former Alpha Art Studio. Her enduring style uses geometric blocks of colour, and opaque layering to build up her portrayals of people, animals and alien spaceships.

17. Red Man 4: Artist Victor Bright creates art at Vincents Art Workshop and is known for his skill with colour and his vibrant artworks.

LIVE AUCTION ITEMS STARTS 7.00PM

1. New Plymouth getaway, Gazley Volkswagen & Gazley ŠKODA, Nice Hotel, TSB Showplace, Len Lye Centre/Govett-Brewster Art Gallery: Head to stunning New Plymouth in a Gazley prestige car and stay the night in a suite at the Nice Hotel with dinner and breakfast for two included. Take in the show Les Miserables and enjoy a personal tour of the Len Lye Centre/Govett-Brewster Art Gallery.

3. Must-have for Hobbit fans, Weta Workshop: Six gorgeous books make up this collection, The Hobbit: An Unexpected Journey Chronicles. These beautifully presented books, created by the artists at the heart of the filmmaking process, are a must-have for Hobbit fans. Value: $350

4. Tyler Jackson: Tyler is an award-winning emerging artist, who also works as an assistant at Wellington's Robert Heald Gallery. This 2017 untitled work comprises thermoformed plexiglas, aluminium and lacquer, and is 50 x 50 x 25cm. Estimate: $500 to $1000

5. Dinner party for eight, Simply Food: Renowned Wellington caterers Simply Food will come to your home and prepare a delicious dinner for eight, along with wines for you and your guests. Relax knowing everything is taken care of while you are treated to an unforgettable dinner: simplyfood.co.nz

6. Rossano Fan, Potocki Paterson Gallery: A Chinese New Zealander for more than 50 years, the late Rossano Fan was a highly regarded architect before turning to painting fulltime in 1993. Dylan Potocki describes the artist as "one of the undiscovered New Zealand greats of recent times". Estimate: $1500 to $2500

7. Wicked in Christchurch, Novotel Christchurch Cathedral Square, Isaac Theatre Royal, Christchurch Art Gallery: Treat yourself to a wicked stay in Christchurch with a night in a superior room at Novotel Christchurch Cathedral Square, including dinner and breakfast for two. Take in the musical Wicked (6 to 15 April) at the Isaac Theatre Royal and enjoy a behind-the-scenes tour of the Christchurch Art Gallery.

8. Derek Ryder, Potocki Paterson Gallery: Art is integral to the life of this former French Foreign Legionnaire who served in war-torn countries for ten years before returning to Wellington. Derek is moving towards a bright future as an artist as seen in this work, In the Light and the Dark. Estimate: $600 to $1000

9. Rugby heaven: Four tickets donated by an anonymous supporter to the All Blacks v France test on Saturday 16 June 2018 in Wellington, plus a behind-the-scenes tour of NZ Rugby House and Westpac Stadium on game day. Special perks might include lifting the Bledisloe Cup from the trophy cabinet. You might even see Beauden Barrett practising a kick before the game. Tickets value: approx. $350

10. David Cauchi, Robert Heald Gallery: The work of this mid-career Wellington artist, represented by Robert Heald Gallery, straddles the line between cartooning and painting, using a diagrammatic line-and-wash style to create quirky, ironic statements. David Cauchi, Time, 2014, coloured pencil, watercolour and oil on linen, 30 x 40cm Estimate: $2400 to $3400

11. Amazing in Auckland, Auckland Arts Festival, Auckland War Memorial Museum: Explore Auckland's artistic and cultural heart with two tickets to the Auckland Arts Festival in March 2018 and a Māori cultural performance at Auckland War Memorial Museum.

12. Landscape consultation, Mark Newdick Landscape Architects, Ellmers Lawnmowers Centre: Reap the benefits of this amazing onsite consultation with award-winning Mark Newdick Landscape Architects. It includes a full brief to understand your issues and hopes, a visual survey, onsite freehand sketches to illustrate design ideas, planting notes for tricky areas, and more ... Also included is a Silky Pocketboy with a compact, lightweight folding saw with a 13cm blade.

13. Daniel Phillips: Celebrated self-taught artist Daniel Phillips produces quirky, striking paintings inspired by travel, planes, trains and the world around him. He works from creative spaces Mix and Pablos Art Studios, and has work in collections throughout New Zealand and internationally.

14. Wellington festival feast, New Zealand Festival, Park Hotel, Sterling Woodfire Eatery & Bar: Feast out on the New Zealand Festival on Saturday 10 March with double tickets to two shows, Future Playground (afternoon) and À Ố Làng Phố (7pm). Also included in this package is one night at the Park Hotel and a $200 voucher from the Sterling Woodfire Eatery & Bar.

15. Peter Madden, Robert Heald Gallery: Peter Madden creates sculptural installations and collages from flat images – from encyclopaedias, books, advertisements and magazines – which he often refashions into spiralling three-dimensional constructions. A mid-career artist based in Auckland, he is represented by Robert Heald Gallery. Peter Madden, The Secretary, 2012, two-leaf collage mounted on card, 43 x 39cm (framed) Estimate: $2400 to $3400

16. Luxury at the Lake, Gazley Volkswagen & Gazley ŠKODA, Hilton Lake Taupo, Huka Lodge: Drive to Taupo in a Gazley prestige car and enjoy one night's accommodation at Hilton Lake Taupo. The third indulgence is lunch for four at the award-winning Huka Lodge, nestled on the banks of the Waikato River upstream from Huka Falls.

SILENT AUCTION SECTION 2
CLOSES AT 7.30PM

1. Pacific Parting: An artist from the former Alpha Art Studio, Ashok Bava uses a bright, yet sensitive colour pallet in his flamboyant and engaging work. Using overlaying cyclic marks, Ashok's works draw the viewer into his colour strokes that suggest forms, figures or nebulae in his layered line work.

2. Thailand Book: Karin Clayden is an artist from the former Alpha Art Studio. She uses bold, bright colours with expressive brush strokes, often with large patches of colour overlaid with elaborate patterns and designs. In 2016, Karin was third in the national IHC Art Awards.
