DANZ MAGAZINE

The DANZ Magazine is the only Magazine dedicated to reflecting the rich diversity of dance in Aotearoa. It is voice for New Zealand dance, to promote, celebrate and document it's history and growth. Published quarterly, the magazine features articles, profiles and reviews from the professional, educational and recreational sectors and is distributed in hard copy form to theatres, private dance schools, libraries, tertiary institutions, primary and secondary schools, funding bodies, local and central government, dancers, choreographers, dance companies and DANZ members. An online version of the Magazine is available on the DANZ website and via flipsnack.com, reaching a wide range of dance enthusiasts nationally and internationally.
