As we are settling into autumn and the weather is cooling we will spend more time indoors which means more time with ourselves to reflect and explore creativity and artmaking. There are a number of workshops* happening in the studio.         Ngā mihi nui,         The Team <small>Tip: Looking for another way to approach your art making? Try harnessing your other senses for your art. Try drawing or painting what you hear, taste/smell and or touch. It's a good way to express things non representational and lends more to a more emotional response to art making.</small> <small>*Please be aware that due to unforeseen circumstances workshops/outings may be postponed and/or cancelled at staff discretion. We will endeavour to notify in advance if and when possible.</small> |
