Air Marshal Sir Bruce Reid Ferguson, KNZM, OBE, AFC (born 14 July 1949) is a retired Royal New Zealand Air Force officer who served as Chief of the New Zealand Defence Force and Director of the Government Communications Security Bureau.

He took up the appointment as Director on 1 November 2006 for four years, stepping down from the role in 2011. Previous to this he was the acting director of the New Zealand Ministry of Civil Defence & Emergency Management, after he retired earlier in 2006 from a distinguished military career which culminated in four years as the New Zealand Chief of Defence Force.

Investiture of Sir Bruce Ferguson as KNZM, by the governor-general, Sir Anand Satyanand, at Old St Paul's, Wellington, on 14 August 2009.

On retiring from Chief of Defence staff, Bruce Ferguson became the Country's Top Spy, as head of the Government Communications Security Bureau and "knocked heads" with then Prime Minister John Key.

You are invited to join us to hear Bruce Ferguson address the Tawa Rotary Club at the Tawa Bowling Club at 6 Davies Street Tawa, on 28 September 2021.

Join us at 6pm for a meal (cost $25) or at 7pm for tea/coffee and cake. Numbers may be limited if Covid Level 2 restrictions continue to apply.

Please RSVP to the Secretary, Tawa Rotary Club – pgdrummond@xtra.co.nz
