Empower and Evolve A new logo for 2018-19

In-coming President Chris Kirby gave this explanation of her logo:

“Women are important
Inner Wheel is important

“Therefore, using the universal symbol for women, the Venus symbol, she has incorporated the universal symbol for Inner Wheel and completed it with 2018-19 theme Empower and Evolve, because now is the time for women to grow, individu-

JUST JANET

Last evening was the last night of Mahjong for the year. Our thanks go to Marg Pine for her enthusiasm and thoughtfulness that she put into the evening and of course throughout the year. Mahjong will start again 13th February, 2019.

Our next meeting is 18th December and will have a Christmas theme. Please bring a wrapped gift of no more than $10.00 in value and we will have a game/Secret Santa or some way of making sure you have fun in celebrating the spirit of Christmas. If you do not wish to participate you may like to consider putting some money in The Suggestion Box and I will make sure it gets to the Salvation Army Food Bank. Before Christmas.

At our last meeting I said "Isn't it great when you know you have not only backed a winner but it has carried on being successful. We have done this twice now with the Virtuoso Strings Orchestra and Wellfed Porirua. You will have read where Liz Sneyd is the best music teacher in New Zealand and Wellfed won the Up & Coming Category at the Wellington Community Awards". These two charities are the recipients of our Pop Up Shop profits. At the Committee Meeting Monday 3rd it was decided to gift $1,000 to Virtuoso Strings with the balance (yet to be finalised) but around $1,170 to Wellfed, Porirua. I think we can all feel well pleased with this.

The Committee noted we have $1,051 from the sale of Entertainment Books with this money going to The Wellington Free Ambulance. Our thanks to Carol Woodfield for leading this project.

We welcomed Yvonne Thomson who will be Club President from 1st July, 2019. She will bring a fresh and enthusiastic approach to the club as President. Thank you Yvonne.

I bought a book from the Pop Up Shop for the kids but....

Support our Special Needs Children Art Auction for KaraHands

Starting on 28th November 2018 we will be listing Michael Moore's painting "Ti Kouka on Amritsar Street" on Trade Me to help raise funds to enable the purchase of a hydraulic Paediatric Cot for special needs children to use during their stay at KaraHands.

KaraHands is an independent registered charitable trust dedicated to providing quality 'Respite Care' for children and young people with very high and complex disabilities using a family shared care model. KaraHands is a home away from home where friendships are made and fun and fellowship are shared. Time away so Mums and Dads (or other family caregivers) can have a break or take time out knowing that their child will be cared for in a safe, secure and loving environment.

Michael first discovered this Ti Kouka-Cabbage Tree, fifteen years ago standing sentinel high above the Wellington harbour. This wonderful survivor from another time became a series of paintings that he has returned to visit over many years. In this most recent painting "Ti Kouka on Amritsar Street" the Kereru arrives in search of Ti Kouka berries.

Michael will supply the purchaser of the painting with documentation for insurance purposes accordingly.

The painting is a oil on board, 400mm x 1250mm. The painting has a retail value of $4000, 100% of all funds go to KaraHands.

Michael Moore was born in the Wairarapa New Zealand. The first four years of his life were spent in Te Wharau in a little valley east of Masterton where he forged a vivid memory of the surrounding hills which has been a key influence in his work. Michael expresses a deep connection to the New Zealand landscape through his art work with his paintings creating a visual diary of this passion and enthusiasm for this land and more recently the introduction of our iconic native birds.
